

NFB-NEWSLINE® offers blind and physically-impaired individuals free anytime, anywhere access to over 300 newspapers and magazines as well as TV listings through a touch-tone telephone, over the Internet, or by download to a digital talking-book player or MP3-playing device.

Subscribers can access national publications such as USA Today, the New York Times, the Wall Street Journal, the Christian Science Monitor, the Economist, the New Yorker, Diabetes Self-Management, and all four AARP magazines as well as national and local wire feeds from the Associated Press and United Press International. NFB-NEWSLINE® also offers local papers like the Idaho Statesman (southwest Idaho), the Idaho Falls Post Register (eastern Idaho) and the Spokesman-Review (northern Idaho).

To be eligible, you must be legally blind or have a physical or a learning disability that prevents you from reading the paper independently. Your eligibility is not dependent on, or restricted to, affiliation with any particular consumer or support organization; the only thing that matters is that you cannot read the newspaper. If you are eligible to use the Talking Book Service you already qualify for NFB-NEWSLINE®!
